

Say goodbye to orange peel

CELUTRAT is a harmless organic iodine compound able to act quickly and effectively on the transcutaneous adiposity, stimulating activity lipocatalytic and normalizing the adipose panniculus.

CELUTRAT increases the activity of the enzyme involved in the second stage of dehydrogenation in the AG degradation process.

Mechanism of action:

PROPERTIES

- It is an active that acts quickly and effectively on adiposities
- Stimulates lipo-catalytic activity
- It normalizes the subcutaneous fat pad both from a morphological and functional point of view
- Very good skin tolerance

Chemir S.A.
www.chemir.es
chemir@chemir.es
 Barcelona (Spain)

Sensory evaluation in 12 volunteers treated with Celutrat® 1% on the thigh

80% Reduces the effect of orange peel

90% Smoother and thinner skin

70% Tones the skin

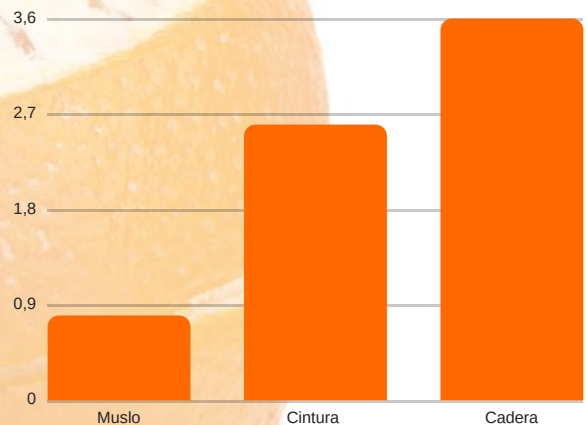

70% Firms the skin

IN VIVO

Results after 4 weeks of treatment by applying an anti-cellulite cream containing 1% Celutrat®

The active ingredient exerts an action on the adipose tissue of the skin, making a daily treatment for 4 weeks capable of reducing cellulite by up to 3.6 cm.

Effective against cellulite

CELUTRAT® is a multi-active substance for topical use that has the highest anti-cellulite efficacy.